of interiority eighteenth century subjects were compelled to experience and inhabit My Dark Room illuminates the spatial and physical dimensions of inner life in the long eighteenth century by synthesizing material analyses of diverse media from optical devices and landscape architecture to women's intimate dress with close readings of literary texts not traditionally considered together among them Andrew Marvell's country house poem Upon Appleton House Margaret Cavendish's experimental epistolary work Sociable Letters Alexander Pope's heroic verse epistle Eloisa to Abelard and Samuel Richardson's novel Pamela Park also analyzes letters and diaries architectural plans prints drawings paintings and more drawing our attention to the lively interactions between spaces and psyches in private environments Park's innovative method of spatial formalism reveals how physical settings enable psychic interiors to achieve vitality in lives both real and imagined
