From Warism to Pacifism Duane Cady, 2010-09-03 Illuminating the moral views on violence from the moral restraint of the just war tradition through pragmatic nonviolence to principled variations of pacifism From Warism to Pacifism Duane L. Cady, 1989 Duane Cady views warism and pacifism as polar extremes on a continuum that embraces a full spectrum of ethical positions on the morality of war and peace Realizing that he could not intellectually defend the notions of just war theory he found that he was a reluctant pacifist a discovery that spurred this exploration of a position that is simultaneously admired and discounted as naive From Warism to Pacifism exposes the pervasive subconscious warism that is the dominant ideology in modern Western culture Like racism and sexism this uncritical presumption that war is morally justifiable even morally required misguides our attitudes and institutions In its place Cady proposes the development of a positive concept of peace a vision that is distinct from the mere absence of war Citing common objections to pacifist values he describes peace as something more than the mere absence of war and demonstrates that pacifism is a defensible position The major difficulty of the peace movement he suggests is the absence of a positive peace vision The peace movement will continue to fail if its sole focus is anti war A challenge is issued to transform our national insecurity policy into a civilian based nonviolent defense Author note Duane L Cady is Professor of Philosophy and Department Chair at Hamline University Ethics and Weapons of Mass Destruction Sohail H.
