Michigan Historical Collections Michigan Historical Commission, Michigan State Historical Society, 1877 Michigan Historical Collections, 1900 The West in Early Cinema Nanna Verhoeff, 2025-10-01 Verhoeff investigates the emergence of the western genre made in the first two decades of cinema 1895-1915 By analyzing many unknown and forgotten films from international archives she traces the relationships between films about the American West their surrounding films and other popular media such as photography painting pulp literature Wild West Shows and popular ethnography Through this exploration of archival material she raises new questions of historiography and provides a model for historical analysis These first traces of the Western film reveal a preoccupation with presence and actuality that informs us about the way in which film as new medium took shape within the context of its contemporary visual culture
