

FOOD SAFETY MANAGEMENT SYSTEM MANUAL (FSMS)

This document summarises our Food Safety policy, outlines our management system and details our key objectives and key principles for managing food safety.

The priorities we place on Food Safety is based on our belief and experience that commercial success and good food safety practice and performance are long-term compatible goals. The intent of the policy is to provide a safe and healthy workplace for employees and to protect the food chain. We employ a systematic best practice review process to ensure Food Safety at all stages we are involved within the food chain.

XYZ Foods operate a food safety management system based around HACCP and designed to control all Critical Control Points. The HACCP is produced by following the Codex Alimentarius code of practice and using the most up to date EU legislation.

XYZ Foods has the responsibility and authority for assuring compliance with appropriate regulatory law or guidelines. These shall be clearly assigned to a competent supervisory-level person or persons, and a functional organisational chart shall be maintained. The competent supervisory-level person shall ensure that all employees are aware of their responsibilities and mechanisms are in place to monitor the effectiveness of their operation.

The company food safety policy statement will be placed in a suitably visible position and communicated to all staff during their induction training.

A positive food safety culture is encouraged within the organisation and is actively supported by senior management.

XYZ is committed to conducting its business taking all responsible precautions and ensuring due diligence is exercised to protect and preserve the human food chain at all stages of involvement. Allied is committed to conducting its business taking all responsible precautions and ensuring due diligence is exercised to protect and preserve the human food chain at all stages of involvement.
