From Symposium To Eucharist From Symposium To Eucharist:

From Symposium to Eucharist Dennis Edwin Smith, From Plato to the New Testament banquets held an important place in creating community sharing values and connecting with the divine Eucharist and Globalization Claudio Carvalhaes, 2013-10-30 The ritual of eating and drinking together is one of the most important Christian events Often called Eucharist Lord's Supper or Communion this sacrament is about the presence of Christ transforming not only those who participate in it but also the world In this book the author engages this Christian liturgical act with movements of people around our globalized world and checks the sacramental borders of hospitality The author calls our attention to the sacramental practices of Reformed churches and from this liturgical practice challenges Christian churches to expand the borders of hospitality Engaging several critical lenses around the notion of the sacrament namely Greco Roman meals Calvin's theology and feminist and Latin American theologies the author challenges theological and liturgical understandings of the Eucharist He fosters an interreligious dialogue around the table and ends up using ritual theory to expand the circles of traditions vocabularies and practices around the sacrament Proposing a borderless border eucharistic hospitality the author encourages readers to ask who and where we are when we get together to eat and drink and how this liturgical act around Jesus table meal can transform the lives of the poor our communities societies and the world Meals in the Early Christian World Dennis E. Smith, 2012-12-05 This book provides three categories of investigation 1 The Typology and Context of the Greco Roman Banquet 2 Who Was at the Greco Roman Banquets and 3 The Culture of Reclining Together these studies establish festive meals as an essential lens into social formation in the Greco Roman world Further Issues in Eucharistic Praying in East and West Maxwell E. Greco-Roman Private Associations Jin Hwan Lee,2018-11-02 In this socio historical study Jin Hwan Lee offers fresh insights on social aspects of communal banqueting practice in early Christ groups particularly in Corinth With an emphasis on banqueting practice in Greco Roman private associations he attempts to understand social conflicts at communal gatherings of the Christ group in Corinth His research on the social dynamics of banquet meetings in associations is thorough fresh and even striking readers will be amply rewarded by new ideas to this field Making use of a wide range of ancient literature and epigraphical and papyrological sources from associations Lee helps recover the real issues that the Christ group members encountered at their communal meal described in 1 Cor 11 17 34 boldly claiming that current scholarly approaches to these issues at the Corinthian Christ group communal meal are anachronistic Lee provides a new paradigm for thinking about early Christ movement meals and by and large early Christ movements in the first and second centuries A D

Theology and the Experience of Disability Andrew Picard,Myk Habets,2016-04-28 The Christian gospel compels humanity to embrace deeper ways of being human together that will overcome false divisions and exclusions in search of flourishing and graced communities Presenting both short narratives emerging out of theological reflection on experience and analytical essays arising from engagement in scholarly conversations Theology and the Experience of Disability is a conscious attempt to develop theology by and with people with disabilities instead of theology about people with disabilities A mixture of academic professional practical and or lived experience is brought to the topic in search of constructive multi disciplinary proposals for church and society The result is an interdisciplinary engagement with the constructive possibilities that emerge from a distinctly Christian understanding of disability as lived experience

Many Tables Dennis E. Smith,Hal Taussig,2001-01-31 What happens inside the church doors is its liturgy It is there that life and fulfillment should be found but too often today liturgy seems stale and lacking in vitality The problem is not a lack of faith so much as it is a lack of life in the liturgy itself In our liturgies we have let our emphasis on preserving traditional forms and expressions overrule attempts to give vital expression to the life and faith of contemporary participants This is especially true with that part of the liturgy that is known as the Lord s Supper or eucharist Though the practice of this sacrament is still central to the piety of most Christians today here especially there is often a lifelessness and lack of connection with life as it is now lived This need not be however The tradition is alive with meaning that we have too often overlooked And liturgy can more effectively address the contemporary situation if we can learn better how to apply it to the aesthetic and symbolic language of today s culture from chapter 1

Recovering the Love Feast Paul Fike Stutzman,2011-01-01 What is a Love Feast How did the early church celebrate the Love Feast How might Christians today celebrate the Love Feast In Recovering the Love Feast Paul Stutzman addresses these questions offering a unique blend of liturgical history and practical theology Part I outlines the history of the Love Feast noting its prevalence in early church worship its gradual decline and its reemergence in the practices of several Pietist groups e g the Moravians Methodists and Brethren Particular focus is given to five elements of the celebration that is eucharistic preparation footwashing the fellowship meal the holy kiss and the Eucharist proper In Part II Stutzman argues that the Love Feast is a valuable Christian practice and a celebration worth recovering in those traditions that may have forgotten the feast Rather than prescribing a specific method for celebrating the Love Feast Stutzman proposes that there are five key disciplines that today s Love Feasts should embody submission love confession reconciliation and thanksgiving This book encourages Christians from a range of traditions to experiment with reclaiming the Love Feast with the hope that each celebration serves as an act of worship to God and an authentic expression of Christian discipleship The Eucharist in the New Testament ,1965 Eucharistic Origins Paul F. Bradshaw,2004

Origins of the Eucharist explored in a new way which questions traditional opinion A different picture of the origins of the eucharist from the traditionally received one The author argues that the Last Supper did not play as important a part in the formulation of the Eucharist as is popularly thought The book will cover topics including the last supper and New Testament narratives the Didache and early Christian ritual meals Justin Martyr Irenaeus Cyprian the emergence of the eucharistic prayers and the transformation of the eucharist in the fourth century The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index ,2005
