FIVE AMERICAN SLAVEHOLDERS
TALK ABOUT THEIR LIVES

SELECTIONS BY ROBERT H. ROBERTS

From Parlor To Prison New Feminist Library

Sherna Berger Gluck

From Parlor To Prison New Feminist Library:

From Parlor to Prison Sherna Berger Gluck, 1985 This fascinating collection recreates the suffrage movement in America through the personal accounts of five ordinary women who participated in the struggle Sylvie Thygeson Jesse Haver Butler Miriam Allen deFord Laura Ellsworth Seiler and Ernestine Hara Kettler Community Activism and Feminist Politics Nancy Naples, 2012-11-12 This collection demonstrates the diversity of women's struggles against problems such as racism violence homophobia focusing on the complex ways that gender culture race ethnicity and class shape women's political consciousness in the US

The Women's Movements in the United States and Britain from the 1790s to the 1920s Christine Bolt, 2014-09-25 This book presents a study of the development of the feminist movement in Britain and America during the 19th century Acknowledging the similar social conditions in both countries during that period the author suggests that a real sense of distinctiveness did exist between British and American feminists American feminists were inspired by their own perception of the superiority of their social circumstances for example whereas British feminists found their cause complicated by traditional considerations of class Christine Bolt aims to show that the story of the American and British women's movement is one of national distinctiveness within an international cause This book should be of interest to students and teachers of American and British political history and women's studies

Women's Words Sherna Berger Gluck, Daphne Patai, 1991 Women's Words is the first collection of writings devoted exclusively to exploring the theoretical methodological and practical problems that arise when women utilize oral history as a tool of feminist scholarship In thirteen multidisciplinary essays the book takes stock of the implicit presuppositions contradictions and prospects of oral history at the hands of feminist scholars Publisher's description

After the Vote Was Won Katherine H. Adams, Michael L. Keene, 2014-01-10 Because scholars have traditionally examined the efforts of American suffragists only in relation to electoral politics the history books have largely missed the real story of what these women achieved far outside the realm of voting reform Though Stanton Anthony and Mott are the best known figures of the woman's suffrage movement all were dead more than a decade before women actually achieved the vote Women like Alice Paul Louisine Havemeyer and Mary Church Terrell carried on their work putting their campaign experiences to work long after the 19th Amendment was ratified This book tells the story of how these women made an indelible mark on American history in fields ranging from education to art science publishing and social activism

The New York Times Book Review, 1986-07 Presents extended reviews of noteworthy books short reviews essays and articles on topics and trends in publishing literature culture and the arts Includes lists of best sellers hardcover and paperback

Women Win the Vote, 1995

Decades of Discontent Lois Scharf, Joan Jensen, 1983-03-29 This first class collection of historical essays revises and rejects the view that American women after suffrage rejected feminism and sank into political apathy and unconsciousness Rather the authors point out the limitations of the view of suffrage as either solving all women's problems or as a disappointment and failure for the women's movement The problems and choices facing women in these decades emerge in part from the very diversity of women's experiences and interests portrayed to such effect in the rest of this volume American Journal of Correction ,1965 Heresies ,1977 A feminist publication on art and politics Feminist Studies ,2003 Man Cannot Speak for Her: A critical study of early feminist rhetoric Karlyn Kohrs Campbell,1989 Strenuously attacked for their attempts to involve themselves in concerns outside the home nineteenth century women reformers soon recognized the need to work for their own rights before they could effectively champion other reformist causes This book examines the creative response to that challenge It offers critical analysis of the speeches and writings that set forth the platform and arguments of the early woman's rights movement and guided its development from the 1840s through the early decades of the twentieth century Following an introductory overview of the movement Campbell examines the rhetoric of leading female abolitionists whose initial struggle revolved around achieving the right to speak in public She next looks at their response to opposition based on theology and the universal moral standard the reformers proposed The author describes the rhetoric of the various woman's rights conventions and how movement leaders adapted their appeals to male legislators Conflicts between social and natural rights feminists and between white and Afro American women are considered and the rhetorical positions that came together to achieve suffrage are analyzed In her final chapter Campbell comments on the rhetoric of the National Woman's Party and the demise of the woman's rights movement in the 1920s A stimulating analysis of the rhetorical contributions of the best known and most effective of America's early female reformers this work together with its companion volume should be considered for courses on American public address women's rhetoric social movements and U S women's history Books in Print ,1991 Women and the Making of America Mari Jo Buhle,Teresa Murphy,Jane F. Gerhard,2009 A chronological survey of the role and experience of women in American history Women and the Making of America examines the issue of power in women's lives and women's history Examining relationships between men and women as well as the diverse experiences of different women the book explores how women were central to the making of America's history The Manuscript Inventories and the Catalogs of Manuscripts, Books, and Periodicals: Book catalog, Education of women L-Har Arthur and Elizabeth Schlesinger Library on the History of Women in America,1984 Books in Print Supplement ,2002 Catalogue of the New York Free Circulating Library New York. Free Circulating Library. Jackson Square Branch,1889 Man Cannot Speak for Her: Key texts of the early feminists Karlyn Kohrs Campbell,1989 This book offers critical analysis of the speeches and writings that set forth the platform and arguments of the early woman's rights movement and guided its development from the 1840s through the early decades of the twentieth century Catalogue of the Library of the International Archives for the Women's Movement (Internationaal Archief voor de Vrouwenbeweging) Amsterdam Internationaal Archief voor de Vrouwenbeweging.
