From Stonehenge To Samarkand An Anthology Of Archaeological Travel Writing:

From Stonehenge to Samarkand Brian Fagan, 2006-07-20 Ever since Roman tourists scratched graffiti on the pyramids and temples of Egypt over two thousand years ago people have traveled far and wide seeking the great wonders of antiquity In From Stonehenge to Samarkand noted archaeologist and popular writer Brian Fagan offers an engaging historical account of our enduring love of ancient architecture the irresistible impulse to visit strange lands in search of lost cities and forgotten monuments Here is a marvelous history of archaeological tourism with generous excerpts from the writings of the tourists themselves Readers will find Herodotus describing the construction of Babylon Edward Gibbon receiving inspiration for his seminal work while wandering through the ruins of the Forum in Rome Gustave Flaubert watching the sunrise from atop the Pyramid of Cheops We visit Easter Island with Pierre Loti Machu Picchu with Hiram Bingham Central Africa with David Livingstone Fagan describes the early antiquarians consumed with a passionate and omnivorous curiosity pondering the mysteries of Stonehenge but he also considers some of the less reputable figures such as the Earl of Elgin who sold large parts of the Parthenon to the British Museum Finally he discusses the changing nature of archaeological tourism from the early romantic wanderings of the solitary figure communing with the departed spirits of Druids or Mayans to the cruise ship excursions of modern times where masses of tourists are hustled through ruins barely aware of their surroundings From the Holy Land to the Silk Road the Yucatan to Angkor Wat Fagan follows in the footsteps of the great archaeological travelers to retrieve their first written impressions in a book that will delight anyone fascinated with the landmarks of ancient civilization

From Stonehenge to Samarkand Brian M. Fagan, 2006 This anthology encompasses tales that fall into a little known literary genre wherein authors seek to capture the romance and sense of wonder they experienced while gazing upon the monumental architecture of ancient civilisations The Exceptional North Robert W. Rix, Eva-Lena Bergström, Cian Duffy, Merethe Roos, 2026-04-13 From 18th century accounts to contemporary discourse this book critically examines the notion of Nordic exceptionalism Through careful historical analysis it explores how external observers have perceived and portrayed Nordic societies questioning the roots and evolution of this influential concept within social as well as art historical debates Our main research question is Were ideas of exceptionalism already present in early discussions and debates about the Nordic countries While the perception of Nordic exceptionalism has often been idealised the book shows that it has never been devoid of cultural criticism Nevertheless there remains a consistent acknowledgement that the Nordic countries stand out as a distinct cultural unit shaped by a distinctive cultural and political trajectory The book fills a gap in existing critical literature by analysing historical perspectives Furthermore it explores how the Nordic countries have crafted their self representation in response to these external views Each chapter is thoughtfully curated to balance scholarly rigour with accessibility making it suitable for students and scholars in the interdisciplinary fields of history cultural studies art and literary history and transnational research Ladies of the Field Amanda Adams, 2010-09-17 The first women archaeologists were Victorian era adventurers who felt most at home when farthest from it Canvas tents were their domains hot Middle Eastern deserts their gardens of inquiry and labor Thanks to them prevailing ideas about feminine nature soft nurturing submissive were upended Ladies of the Field tells the story of seven remarkable women each a pioneering archaeologist each headstrong smart and courageous who burst into what was then a very young science Amanda Adams takes us with them as they hack away at underbrush under a blazing sun battle swarms of biting bugs travel on camelback for weeks on end and feel the excitement of unearthing history at an archaeological site Adams also reveals the dreams of these extraordinary women their love of the field their passion for holding the past in their hands their fascination with human origins and their utter disregard for convention

Babylon Under Western Eyes Andrew Scheil,2016-05-09

Babylon under Western Eyes examines the mythic legacy of ancient Babylon the Near Eastern city which has served western culture as a metaphor for power luxury and exotic magnificence for more than two thousand years Sifting through the many references to Babylon in biblical classical medieval and modern texts Andrew Scheil uses Babylon s remarkable literary ubiquity as the foundation for a thorough analysis of the dynamics of adaptation and allusion in western literature Touching on everything from Old English poetry to the contemporary apocalyptic fiction of the Left Behind series Scheil outlines how medieval Christian society and its cultural successors have adopted Babylon as a political metaphor a degenerate archetype and a place associated with the sublime Combining remarkable erudition with a clear and accessible style Babylon under Western Eyes is the first comprehensive examination of Babylon s significance within the pantheon of western literature and a testimonial to the continuing influence of biblical classical and medieval paradigms in modern culture

Forming

National Identity in Iran Ali Mozaffari,2014-06-20 Modern Iran is a country with two significant but competing discourses of national identity one stemming from ancient pre Islamic customs and mythology the other from Islamic Shi i practices and beliefs At one time co existing and often mutually reinforcing in more modern times they have been appropriated by intellectuals and the state who have drawn upon their narratives and traditions to support and authenticate their ideologies The result has been an often confused notion of identity in Iran In this essential work Ali Mozaffari explores the complex processes involved in the formation of Iranian national identity He lays particular stress upon the importance of place for it is through the concept of place that collective national identity and ideas of homeland are expressed and disseminated The author reveals the ways in which homeland is conceived both through designated permanent sites and ritual performance illustrating his arguments through an analysis of the ancient Achaemenid capital of Persepolis and the Shi i rituals of Moharram In a final part of the book he extends his analysis to the Ancient Iran Museum and the Islamic Period Museum housed in the National Museum of Iran showing how the major transformations of twentieth century Iran which have so far been perceived in terms of political discourses and historical events are in fact concerned with conceiving place Forming National Identity in Iran offers powerful insights into the forces shaping national identity in Iran which makes it a valuable contribution to the cultural and political importance of place Oklahoma Archeology ,2006 The Writers Directory ,2013 The Book Review Digest ,2006 Talking Book Topics ,2008 Cassette Books Library of Congress.
