Hospital Series Amelia Rosselli, 2015-03-31 A poem cycle about hospital life and illness by revered twentieth century Italian avant gardist Hospital Series a bruisingly intimate colloquy with an elusive lover is Italian poet Amelia Rosselli's virtuoso subversive neo Petrarchan sequence of poems Rosselli wrote much of the series in the mid 1960s after being hospitalized for a mental illness she suffered from for most of her life and whose pain shapes her language and difficult vision These explosive poems a furious cacophonous crescendo of semantic and syntactic accumulations deeply admired by Pier Paolo Pasolini place Rosselli among the greatest writers of her generation

Dirty Poem Ferreira Gullar, 2015-03-31 Considered the greatest long poem in 20th century Brazilian poetry Ferreira's Gullar's Dirty Poem was written as a response to the Brazilian dictatorship that put him in exile and murdered thousands Written in 1975 in Buenos Aires when Ferreira Gullar was in political exile from the Brazilian dictatorship Dirty Poem is an epic poem that amid life events traces the author's political and artistic evolution and is by most accounts the most important long poem of contemporary Brazilian literature Scholar and critic Otto Maria Carpeaux wrote Dirty Poem deserves to be called National Poem because it embodies all of the experiences victories defeats and hopes in the life of the Brazilian citizen It is a hypnotic work that draws on the poet's memory of adolescence in the seaside city of São Luís do Maranhão during World War II and deals openly with the dirty shamefulness of a socio economic system that abuses its citizens with poverty sexism greed and fear individually selected relevant items from over 6 800 major science and social science journals Modern Iraqi Poetry Since 1947 Fadel Khalaf Jabr, 2015 This anthology captures the catalysts motivations inspirations and outcomes of the free verse movement in Iraq from its inception in 1947 to the present day It provides English readers with an understanding of the breadth of modern Iraqi poetry landscape by including translated poems within their political economic and social context Beginning in Iraq in 1947 a free verse shi r hurr movement emerged completely altering the way much poetry would be written thereafter in the Arab World Wanting to break free of traditional poetry s meters meanings and rhymes they found constraining poets began experimenting with new and different styles better able to capture the feelings values and events of current and contemporary life Building on and encouraged by earlier efforts at innovation they endeavored to break the rigidity of traditional poetry and express new attributes and domains the dream world free imagination open narrative folklore tales and legends everyday life surrealism and mythology Over subsequent decades poets furthered the free verse movement adding their own conceptions of modernism and post modernism along with new styles meanings and mediums Many anthologies of Arabic or Iraqi modern poetry have been published in the United States such as Fifteen Iraqi Poets New Directions Publishing Corporation 2013 Flowers of Flame Unheard Voices of Iraq Michigan State University Press 2008 Modern Arabic Poetry An Anthology Columbia University Press 1987 However despite the intentions of the editors the content of these anthologies reveals several limitations First the anthologies introduce only a small portion of the wide Iraqi poetry landscape Second the poets selected are mainly those who are already known and internationally translated Third occasionally poets are been selected based on personal preferences not by merit Despite these limitations the collections are valuable for introducing in English a flavor of Iraqi poetry The current work sets out to fill the gaps in the preceding collections and be as resourceful inclusive and representative as possible Poets were selected that represent the full Iraqi poetry landscape not only those who are well known and established Besides bringing a mix of Iraqi poets from different decades the anthology also provides background on the social political and cultural context that dominated each decade In addition the translation process used in this anthology distinguishes it from other collections The distinctive features include the translation process the range of the selection and the perspective on the translations All poems included in this anthology went through a similar four step translation process an academically controlled system not necessarily available or followed in other poetry collection translations In Step 1 of this process the translator produces a raw summary of the content of a poem In Step 2 the translator generates a literal version noting any implied cultural political linguistic or social references In Step 3 the translator produces a clean draft translation which he or she sends along with the initial raw summary and the literal translation to a native speaker for review and provision of feedback in order to check the reception in the host language In Step 4 the translator produces a final version of the translation incorporating all the elements of the preceding steps In addition in selecting these poems I attempted to maintain a neutral selection process rather than promoting my personal preferences and own acquaintances as an Iraqi poet myself A neutral selection process provides the anthology authenticity credibility and a fair representation To begin I collected a variety of samples from different poets actively publishing in each decade since the 1940s To gain access to a wide range of Iraqi poets living both inside and outside Iraq I used different sources such as Iraqi newspapers popular websites interviews and personal connections to acquire poems for the anthology The response was tremendous From the numerous poems that I collected I then selected the ones that best illuminated how the changes and events taking place within Iraq and its society have influenced poets and their poetry The discussion of the trends and events taking place in the context where the poems were conceived and produced is an additional strength of this anthology

The Iraqi Nights Dunya Mikhail, 2014-05-13 A stunning new collection by one of Iraq's brightest poetic voices The Iraqi Nights is the third collection by the acclaimed Iraqi poet Dunya Mikhail Taking The One Thousand and One Nights as her central theme Mikhail personifies the role of Scheherazade the storyteller saving herself through her tales The nights are endless seemingly as dark as war in this haunting collection seemingly as endless as war Yet the poet cannot stop dreaming of a future beyond the violence of a place where every moment something ordinary will happen under the sun Unlike Scheherazade however Mikhail is writing not to escape death but to summon the strength to endure Inhabiting the emotive spaces between Iraq and the U S Mikhail infuses those harsh realms with a deep poetic intimacy The author's vivid illustrations inspired by Sumerian tablets are threaded throughout this powerful book

The War Works Hard Dunyā Mikhā'il, Elizabeth Winslow, 2005 Poems by an exiled Iraqi poet many about war

Modern Iraqi Poetry Abdulrazzaq Abdulwahid, 2018-05-30 Abdulrazzaq Abdulwahid was an award winning Iraqi poet who enjoyed worldwide recognition and translation into a number of languages Abdulwahid Lu Lu A has lovingly compiled and translated this collection Modern Iraqi Poetry A Poet for All Seasons where the poet espouses a great love of his Iraqi homeland weaving in vivid imagery from the cradle of civilisation with a fierce interest in politics and pain at his country's recent turbulent history He also turns his attention to love writing in a delicate style attractive to sensitive souls
