Fighting God Atheist Manifesto Religious:

Fighting God David Silverman, 2015-12 The president of American Atheists branded Mr Atheist Pants by Stephen Colbert presents an unflinching manifesto for the nonbeliever Fighting God David Silverman (President of American Atheists), 2017 Fighting God is a firebrand manifesto from one of the most recognizable faces of atheism In his book Silverman a walking talking atheist billboard known for his appearances on Fox News discusses the effectiveness ethics and impact of the in your face atheist who refuses to be silent Amazon com Atheism and Love in the Modern Era Colby Dickinson, 2025-04-17 Discussing the decline of faith and the rise of love in the modern era Colby Dickinson proposes a critique of religious belief which addresses how a secular world can continue to mine religious traditions for their conceptual and emotional riches Atheism and Love in the Modern Era argues that theism and atheism taken together can peel back the layers of abstraction alienation and disillusionment that always accompany our humanity in order to help us really see how it is to exist in this world To illuminate this vision Dickinson takes up the notion of love as a cultivation and practice of indifference as a letting go of one's identity a crucial concept that unites both religion and atheism through a concerted effort to detach from them both The book is organized into four sections each situating the concept of love in relation to a distinct theme the first outlines modern secularized versions of various religious concepts such as technology in the place of miracles or art in the place of religious revelation The second argues that in a pluralistic world the actual lived realities of various religious communities and persons defy the static categories and classifications grouped under the umbrella of religion The third section discusses and defines non absolute love The fourth section discusses how atheism in its critiques of religion misses the significance of de centring the act of love Dickinson elaborates his reflections through lucid engagement with a variety of thinkers including i ek Agamben Irigaray Derrida Erich Fromm Charles Taylor and Philip Kitcher This is essential reading for those interested in popular debates around theism and atheism as well as those concerned with the ways in which continental and analytic philosophy have addressed the continued significance of religious traditions The Politics of New Atheism Stuart McAnulla, Steven Kettell, Marcus Schulzke, 2018-07-04 New atheism is best known as a literary and media phenomenon which has resulted in the widespread discussion of the anti religious arguments of authors such as Richard Dawkins Sam Harris and Christopher Hitchens yet it also has strongly political dimensions This book analyses the political aspects of new atheism and offers an analysis that is informed by insights from political science and political theory The authors locate new atheism within a diverse history of politically oriented atheisms It is argued the new atheist movement itself contains a considerable variety of political viewpoints despite coalescing around forms of secularist campaigning and identity politics New atheist views on monotheism public life morality and religious violence are examined to highlight both limitations and strengths in such perspectives Conservative feminist and Marxist responses to new atheism are also evaluated within this critical analysis The book rejects claims that new atheism is itself a form of fundamentalism and argues that the issues it grapples with often reflect wider dilemmas in liberal left thought which have ongoing relevance in the era of Trump and Brexit It will be of great interest to researchers and scholars in the fields of new atheism political atheism secularism non religion and secular religious tensions Atheists in American Politics Richard J.

Meagher,2018-02-05 Today atheists it seems are everywhere Nonbelievers write best selling books and proudly defend their views in public they have even hired a lobbyist But as political scientist Richard J Meagher shows atheist political activism is not a new phenomenon From the Freethought movement of the late 1800s to postwar rationalists and humanists to today s proud atheists nonbelievers have called for change within a resistant political culture While atheist organizing typically has been a relatively lonely and sad affair advances in technology and new political opportunities have helped atheists to finally gain at least some measure of legitimacy in American politics In Atheists in American Politics one of the first works to take atheism seriously as a social movement Meagher highlights key moments within the political history of atheism and freethought and examines how the changing circumstances that surround the movement help explain political mobilization In doing so this book also highlights the ways that social movements in general gain momentum and how a number of interlocking factors are often necessary to enable a movement to take off in American politics Religion in the Classroom

Jonathan M. Golden,Joseph J. McCallister,2023-09-21 An indispensable resource for understanding religion s place in American schools and in matters concerning the separation of church and state in the United States There are few places where the tension between freedom of religion and separation of church and state is more salient than in America s public schools This book serves as a point of reference for many of the most important instances of this tension including the court cases laws and legal documents policies and principles involved Approximately 50 reference entries are included covering topics such as the American Civil Liberties Union school dress code and the Scopes Trial The entries provide cross references and suggestions for further reading and the volume closes with an annotated bibliography American Atheism 2.0

Atheists reject all teachings of all religions The Atheist knows that god did not make man The opposite is true man made god in the image and likeness of a man in the form of a virile Greco Roman male in his early prime Man completed this effort over 2 300 years ago With this creation came religion We know that religion requires unconditional belief and complete submission without thought Any discipline based on belief in man s written words requires complete submission without concern for facts and a set of rules that knowingly and completely overlook self determination appears cult like trivial and not worthy of respect Upon examining the benefits of believing Atheists realize that any benefit or benefits derived from affiliation with religion are at their very best meaningless or insignificant Atheists are aware of atrocities committed in the name of spiritual superiority Atheists view these events as wasteful shameful and as always elusive of any perceived victory and devoid of any social redeeming qualities or values Accepting this truth is imperative as it is so easy to verify too many lose contact with reality based on trivial religious beliefs and bizarre religious doctrine Most of religion s beliefs are products of the ninth thru fifteenth century the Dark Ages period of Western Europe These products include very basic child like stories intended for the most uneducated members of society including pseudo horror stories The stories are about demons evil spirits devils and the like However the target audience changed now religion is an exceedingly mainstream belief system and extremely profitable for its promoters Religion s impact on our society is shocking almost mind boggling The wild stories work even today If you are a clever preacher you can tell your followers you saw a man walk on water Many will believe you The answers to the so called mysteries of faith never elude us as they are in any public library Most are just too lazy complacent stupid or fearful to conduct the required research to explore such topics He who knows nothing is closer to the truth than he whose mind is filled with falsehoods and errors Thomas Jefferson April 13 1743 July 4 1826 Truth is not in demand in this society We stand in abject fear of learning the truth In being honest with ourselves we must admit and accept that of our own volition we constructed a high tech do it yourself version of the European Dark Ages in this so called 21st century We refer to this as fundamentalism After a thousand years of mental conditioning we must admit the churches trained us too well Now these habits are difficult to break but changing a habit is not impossible Always remember After your death you will be what you were before your birth Arthur Schopenhauer February 22 1788 September 21 1860
