Woodcock's stories feature an interesting partner who he sometimes refers to as Pard and other local people who lived in the Potter County Pennsylvania area. Many of the wild places where he made his camps are now State Parks and Forests. E. N. Woodcock tells his stories in plain language about deer and bear hunting, trapping, bear, wild cat, fox, marten, mink, and muskrat runs with porcupines and skunks, mishaps that happened to himself and his partners, and the everyday occurrences of camp life. He gives his opinion of state game laws and bounties and his views on the need for conservation. The book also includes practical information on building cabins, camp fires, and cooking, staying warm, finding bee hives, trap sets, building deadfalls using baits, skinning, stretching, and drying fur, tracking game, and types of guns and ammunition. In introducing the book, Woodcock writes, "I have hunted in many of the states of the Far West including the three Pacific States, California, Oregon, and Washington. I killed my first panther or cougar in the mountains of Idaho on the headwaters of the Clearwater River. My first real experience in wolfing was in Southeastern Oregon. I met my greatest number of deer in Northwestern California. I have trapped of late years in nearly all of the states east of the Mississippi river and also on the White River of Arkansas, also trapped bear and other fur-bearing animals and hunted deer in Northern Michigan, also forty years ago. Another sport which I enjoyed was the pigeon days. I have netted wild pigeons from the Adirondack Mountains in New York State to Indian Territory, now Oklahoma, trapping them in the states of Michigan, Indiana, Missouri, Pennsylvania, and New York. My nature led me to the Trail and Trap line from early childhood, and I have trapped bear and hunted deer in the mountains of Pennsylvania for more than 50 years, half a century.
