

SOCIAL MEDIA LITERACY

WHAT AND WHERE ARE MIDDLE SCHOOLERS LEARNING ABOUT SOCIAL MEDIA?

In a mixed method study, we surveyed 229 school staff members and 419 parents from 4 school districts in the Northeast and interviewed 30 parents and 6 school staff members.

Most frequently discussed topics amongst educators:

49% of educators discussed how student technology use interferes with sleep

46% of educators discussed students craving constant access to devices

43% of educators discussed considering how online posts affect others

Most frequently discussed topics amongst parents:

With 92% of parents reporting discussing stranger danger, it was the most popular topic from our survey

90% of parents discuss cyberbullying and mean online behaviors

85% of parents warned their children of being influenced by peer-induced risky behaviors online (vaping, skipping school, alcohol, etc.)

FINDINGS

- Educators focused on the prevention of their students being victimized by their own addictive and self-regulatory behaviors while parents focused more on preventing their teens from unsafe or risk-taking online peer influences.
- The fact that educators and parents focus on different aspects of the digital wellbeing of the child could be turned into a strength of a home-school partnership that is not competing but complementary with one another.

Richard Bailey

6 Guide Social Media Literacy:

The Teacher's Guide to Media Literacy Cyndy Scheibe, Faith Rogow, 2012 A Deeper Sense of Literacy is the first book to suggest that media literacy is both a content area and an approach to teaching that can be integrated into any subject area. It combines theory and practical application in a way that addresses the most important questions related to media literacy in education today: what is it, why is it important, how can you teach it across a wide range of curriculum areas and grade levels, and does it work? Rather than focusing on how to teach media literacy, Scheibe and Rogow focus on actually using media literacy to teach lessons across the content areas.
