tool New examples and references ensure that this new edition of the bestselling construction dissertation guide is right up to speed with current practice This is the ideal resource for students involved in research in Construction Management Building and Quantity Surveying People and Organizational Management in Construction Shamil Naoum,2001 This work offers an extended dictionary of key management concepts for students and professionals alike It helps the reader through an applied approach to management to search for the most appropriate ways of improving their organization s performance and effectiveness With the aid of case studies drawn from the construction industry this title discusses key management issues including management theory strategy organization structure and design culture leadership power work groups motivation and personal management Your Undergraduate Dissertation Nicholas Walliman,2004-08-20 A practical step by step guide to managing and developing a successful undergraduate project Whole Life Costing Peter Caplehorn,2012-11-27 As sustainability has emerged and grown in importance so has the need for a whole life time costing approach partly driven by governmental insistence This book sets out the practical issues involved in the selection of materials their performance and all other issues that need to be taken into account The emphasis unlike in other publications is not to formularise or to package the issues but to leave the reader with a clear understanding and a sensible practical way of arriving at conclusions in the future Constructing Professional Discourse Concepción Orna-Montesinos,2012 This book explores the fascinating role that language plays in the construction of non verbal objects by mapping out the ontological meaning of the specialised concepts and the domain specific knowledge embedded in them In doing so it provides a comprehensive linguistic insight into the discourse of professional domain specific communities and hence into the communication practices and procedures of those communities In this respect the book offers a response to the claims made by many of the most influential applied linguists today such as Vijay Bhatia 1993 2004 John Swales 1990 2004 or Ken Hyland 2002 among others who have consistently defended the need for applied linguistic research into the textual generic and social perspectives on the under researched interrelatedness of the discoursal and professional practices of a discipline Specifically this book provides readers with an integrative multi perspective approach to the study of professional domain specific discourses While it mainly draws on the tenets of genre theory and discourse semantics it also nurtures from the theoretical and empirical foundations of applied linguistics cognitive linguistics corpus linguistics and ontological engineering The book starts from the analysis of domain specific texts as final written products with specific lexico grammatical semantic and rhetorical features to later enquire into the written products as textual artefacts closely linked to the social context of production and interpretation of the text This integrative approach provides fresh new insights into the way the processes of writing are affected by the community specific institutional and socio historical circumstances in which domain specific texts are produced Acta academica ,2007 Building Surveys P. V. Glover,2003 This new edition includes a completely revised section on surveying historic buildings It also brings the reader fully up to date with the changes to the legal and regulatory framework within which surveyors operate Recent cases which impact on surveyor s liabilities to their clients are discussed Firmly established as the leading comprehensive guide to surveying Based on practical experience of professional surveyors All legal and regulatory references fully updated Bowker's Best Reference Books: Author index. Title index ,2005 Contains approximately 20 000 mostly English language sources for academic libraries of all sizes Writing a Built Environment Dissertation Peter Farrell,2011-01-13 As a built environment student you are likely to be required to research write and submit a dissertation as a core component of your degree studies As a vocational profession students of the built environment often have strong practical aspirations Writing a Built Environment Dissertation provides practical guidance and will help to steer you into a position where you can develop a good dissertation by mixing your practical strengths with more theoretical tools The book is ordered around a common dissertation structure that is it starts with material that should be in the introduction and finishes with material that should be in the conclusion Each chapter provides a commentary on the kind of information that you should put in each chapter of your dissertation supported by a variety of examples using a range of methodological designs The book has a strong focus on data collection data analysis reliability and validity all areas where student dissertations are often weak Material that will help you think about study skills and ethics is embedded throughout the book and the chapters on qualitative and quantitative analysis will show you how to carry out a rigorous analysis while avoiding some of the complexity in statistical work If you are an under graduate student in the final year of an honours degree programme in the built environment or perhaps a student at masters or PhD level and have been away from academic study for some time then this book will help you to write a more innovative and thorough dissertation Saka Anuar Alias,2011

Government E-services Adam Jait,2013 American Book Publishing Record ,1998 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2007 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1991 Masterful Subjects, Ambivalent Academics Juliann M.
