Literacy Instruction with Disciplinary Texts William E. Lewis, John Z. Strong, 2020-10-28 To develop strong disciplinary literacy skills middle and high school students need to engage with diverse types of challenging texts in every content area This book provides a blueprint for constructing literacy rich instructional units in English language arts science and social studies The authors describe how to design interconnected text sets and plan lessons that support learning and engagement before during and after reading Presented are ways to build academic vocabulary and background knowledge teach research based comprehension strategies and guide effective discussions and text based writing activities Chapters also cover how to teach students to write argumentative informative and narrative essays and to conduct discipline specific inquiry Special features include sample text sets and 24 reproducible planning templates and other teaching tools purchasers get access to a Web page where they can download and print the reproducible materials in a convenient 8 1 2 x 11 size Blast, Corrupt, Dismantle, Erase Brett Josef Grubisic, Gisèle M. Baxter, Tara Lee, 2014-06-16 What do literary dystopias reflect about the times In Blast Corrupt Dismantle Erase contributors address this amorphous but pervasive genre using diverse critical methodologies to examine how North America is conveyed or portrayed in a perceived age of crisis accelerated uncertainty and political volatility Drawing from contemporary novels such as Cormac McCarthy's The Road Neil Gaiman's American Gods and the work of Margaret Atwood and William Gibson to name a few this book examines dystopian literature produced by North American authors between the signing of NAFTA 1994 and the tenth anniversary of 9 11 2001 As the texts illustrate awareness of and deep concern about perceived vulnerabilities ends of water oil food capitalism empires stable climates ways of life non human species and entire human civilizations have become central to public discourse over the same period By asking questions such as What are the distinctive qualities of post NAFTA North American dystopian literature and What does this literature reflect about the tensions and contradictions of the inchoate continental community of North America Blast Corrupt Dismantle Erase serves to resituate dystopian writing within a particular geo social setting and introduce a productive means to understand both North American dystopian writing and its relevant engagements with a restricted mapped reality Teaching Young Adult Literature Today Judith A. Hayn, Jeffrey S. Kaplan, Karina R. Clemmons, 2016-11-02 Teaching Young Adult Literature Today introduces the reader to what is current and relevant in the plethora of good books available for adolescents More importantly literary experts illustrate how teachers everywhere can help their students become lifelong readers by simply introducing them to great reads smart insightful and engaging books that are specifically written for adolescents Hayn Kaplan and their contributors address a wide range of topics how to avoid common obstacles to using YAL selecting quality YAL for classrooms while balancing these with curriculum requirements engaging disenfranchised readers pairing YAL with technology as an innovative way to teach curriculum standards across all content areas Contributors also discuss more theoretical subjects such as the absence of lesbian gay bisexual transgender and questioning LGBTQ young adult literature in secondary classrooms and contemporary YAL that responds to the changing expectations of digital generation readers who want to blur the boundaries between page and screen This book has been updated to reflect the wealth of new YA literature that has been published since the first edition appeared in March 2012 and to reflect new trends in technology that influences how adolescents are reading and responding to literature

Everybody Sees the Ants A.S. King, 2011-10-03 Lucky Linderman didn't ask for his life He didn't ask his grandfather not to come home from the Vietnam War He didn't ask for a father who never got over it He didn't ask for a mother who keeps pretending their dysfunctional family is fine And he didn't ask to be the target of Nader McMillan's relentless bullying which has finally gone too far But Lucky has a secret one that helps him wade through the daily mundane torture of his life In his dreams Lucky escapes to the war-ridden jungles of Laos the prison his grandfather couldn't escape where Lucky can be a real man an adventurer and a hero It's dangerous and wild and it's a place where his life just might be worth living But how long can Lucky keep hiding in his dreams before reality forces its way inside

Michael L Printz Honor recipient A S King's smart funny and boldly original writing shines in this powerful novel about learning to cope with the shrapnel life throws at you and taking a stand against it
