35. Abigail gets the story straight with her girlfriends. What are the details Abby instructs, "Tell them we danced, I told him as much already. He is sisters to come out of the grave. He saw you [Mary] naked."

36. What is Mary's reaction to Abigail's report that Reverend Parris saw her in reaction? Why or why not?
Mary giggles at the thought of the minister seeing her naked and dancing surprising; she should be embarrassed, but these girls don't recognize the Mary is breathless. She is seventeen, a subservient, naive, lonely.

37. What are the three adjectives that Miller uses to describe Mary Warren?

38. How is Mary reacting to the rumors in the town?

39. What is Rebecca's opinion about the existence of witches in Salem? Who does she think is to blame for the children's illness?
Rebecca does not believe there are witches in Salem. If there is some affliction that has affected the girls, it is the fault of the townspeople.

40. What are some of the issues that Parris does indicating his disdain for Reverend Parris?
Reverend Parris's indignation; he called for Reverend Hale to come to Salem without consulting anyone. Parris only preaches about hell. Parris wants a larger stipend for himself and the dead to the parsonage.

41. Giles is an argumentative character and often invites discord among the townspeople. Provide two specific examples.
"Last month [Giles] collected four pound damages for you [Proctor] publicly saying 'I burned the roof off your house.'" and "He [Putnam's grandfather] nearly killed among my [Giles's] north pasture but he knew I'd be on his fingers before he'd set his name to it."

42. Why does Parris respond to Giles' and Proctor's accusations by saying, "What are we Quakers? We are Quakers here yet..."?
Parris responds to Giles' and Proctor's accusations by saying, "What are we Quakers? We are Quakers here yet..." Parris is attempting to assert his superiority to Proctor. He is the minister and can preach what he wants.

43. Parris commands earlier in the act and now that there is a faction among Salem's citizens that wants him dead as their minister. Are his suspicions legitimate? Explain.
Although Parris is vocal about his dislike for Parris, he is genuinely surprised when Parris mentions the faction in Salem that would dismiss him as minister. He might or might not be paranoid, his insecurity is genuine and a vulnerability for anyone who might take advantage of it.

44. What indication is there of significant discord among the citizens of the town, long before the suspicion of witchcraft?
Parris and Parris are in conflict. Rebecca remarks that she had hoped the townspeople would get along. Giles is in court for various reasons. There is significant gossiping in town. People are falling to show at church services.

45. Land-hold has been determined as the motive for many of the witch accusations in Salem. What is land-hold? What evidence is there of land-hold in the dialogue of Act I?

In the Puritan community, a man's social status was dependent on his land ownership. The argument between Giles and Proctor and Putnam is an example of this. Putnam: A moment, Mr. Proctor. My land is in that you're digging; if I may ask you? Proctor: Why, yes, we are surely going to dig this year. Putnam: That tract is in my hands, it's in my hands. Proctor: In your hands? I bought this land. Putnam: He had no right to dig. Proctor: Father's will that it be. Putnam: How
