Disguise Masks And Global African Art:

Disguise Pamela McClusky,Erika Dalya Massaquoi,2015 African masks changed the face of modern art in the early twentieth century Today a century later young artists are again looking at masks in museums for inspiration In this era of innovation when digital culture is upending our visual framework artists are reinventing form in an ever expanding choice of mediums With Disguise Masks and Global African Art the Seattle Art Museum s renowned collection of masks has become a catalyst for artists encouraging them to present fresh visions of masquerade and of the shared instinct to hide from ourselves and from each other Disguise ,2015 African Art Reframed Bennetta Jules-Rosette,J.R. Osborn,2020-06-22 Once seen as a collection of artifacts and ritual objects African art now commands respect from museums and collectors Bennetta Jules Rosette and J R Osborn explore the reframing of African art through case studies of museums and galleries in the United States Europe and Africa The authors take a three pronged approach Part One ranges from curiosity cabinets to virtual websites to offer a history of ethnographic and art museums and look at their organization and methods of reaching out to the public In the second part the authors examine museums as ecosystems and communities within communities and they use semiotic methods to analyze images signs and symbols drawn from the experiences of curators and artists The third part introduces innovative strategies for displaying disseminating and reclaiming African art The authors also propose how to reinterpret the art inside and outside the museum and show ways of remixing the results Drawing on extensive conversations with curators collectors and artists African Art Reframed is an essential guide to building new exchanges and connections in the dynamic worlds of African and global art Masquerades in African Society Walter E. A. Van Beek,Harrie M. Leyten,2023 What is the meaning of masks and masquerades in African traditions and how can we understand their role in rituals and performances Why do we find masks in some African regions and not in others and what does this mask habitat say about the general dynamics of masquerades in Africa Though masks are among the most famous art icons of Africa exploration of their uses and the way in which they articulate social characteristics of African societies has been underexamined This book takes an anthropological perspective on the phenomenon of masquerades on the African continent to show how mask rituals are an integral part of African indigenous religions and societies and are informed by and linked to specific types of social and ecological conditions Having established the commonalities of mask rituals and a mask typology the authors look at the varieties of mask performances and the types of rituals in which masks function in rites of passage and in rituals of gender power and identity Sonic Sculpture and the Performative Impulse Melissa Christine Warak,2025-03-28 This study considers the performativity of sound producing sculptures made in the twenty first century through a cultural history of certain works A subfield of the sound art medium sonic sculpture presents new possibilities in sensory engagement with the viewer creating a mediated experience for eye and ear Contextualized within three linking nodes of sonic engagement sonic sculpture as a socially engaged art listening to history and the use of the human body as the material of sonic sculpture itself each chapter interrogates one or two works by a contemporary artist These in depth analyses of the works serve as lenses to the artists larger practices and engagements with things that sound Artists covered include Nick Cave Kara Walker Janet Cardiff George Bures Miller and Ragnar Kjartansson The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history sound studies musicology and cultural studies Out of Bounds Pamela A. Patton, Maria Alessia Rossi, 2023-10-03 Where are the limits of medieval art as a field of study What happens when conventionally trained art historians disregard the chronological geographical or cultural parameters that both direct and protect their scholarship Beginning with Thelma K Thomas and Alicia Walker's acute assessment of the need for a medieval art history for now the essays in Out of Bounds ask what happens when the study of medieval art disregards boundaries that it once obeyed The volume focuses on questions surrounding the production of knowledge and on how scholarly investigation beyond the conventional thematic boundaries of medieval art history is changing demonstrating how the field can address the ethics of scholarship today by positing a global turn in response to growing demands for socially responsible medieval studies Collectively the contributors demonstrate how going out of bounds can transform modern understanding of the people traditions and relationships that gave rise to medieval works As such this book argues for the necessity of reshaping scholarly discourse about the nature and significance of medieval art and generates fresh scholarly interpretations and important new critical tools for teaching and researching the Middle Ages The contributors to this volume are Suzanne Conklin Akbari Michele Bacci Jill Caskey Eva Frojmovic Sarah M Gu rin Christina Maranci Alice Isabella Sullivan Thelma K Thomas Michele Tomasi and Alicia Walker The Art of African Masks Carol Finley, 1999-01-01 Describes how different types of masks are made and used in Africa and how they reflect the culture of their ethnic groups African Arts , 2001
