Displacing Whiteness Ruth Frankenberg, 1997-09-22 Displacing Whiteness makes a unique contribution to the study of race dominance Its theoretical innovations in the analysis of whiteness are integrated with careful substantive explorations of whiteness on an international multiracial cross class and gendered terrain Contributors localize whiteness as well as explore its sociological anthropological literary and political dimensions Approaching whiteness as a plural rather than singular concept the essays describe for instance African American Chicana o European American and British experiences of whiteness The contributors offer critical readings of theory literature film and popular culture ethnographic analyses explorations of identity formation and examinations of racism and political process Essays examine the alarming epidemic of angry white men on both sides of the Atlantic far right electoral politics in the UK underclass white people in Detroit whiteness in brownface in the film Gandhi the engendering of whiteness in Chicana o movement discourses whiteface literature Roland Barthes as a critic of white consciousness whiteness in the black imagination the inclusion and exclusion of suburban brown skinned white girls and the slippery relationships between culture race and nation in the history of whiteness Displacing Whiteness breaks new ground by specifying how whiteness is lived engaged appropriated and theorized in a range of geographical locations and historical moments representing a necessary advance in analytical thinking surrounding the burgeoning study of race and culture Contributors Rebecca Aanerud Angie Chabram Dernessesian Phil Cohen Ruth Frankenberg John Hartigan Jr bell hooks T Muraleedharan Ch la Sandoval France Winddance Twine Vron Ware David Wellman

Working through Whiteness Cynthia Levine-Rasky, 2012-02-01 What is whiteness What is gained by claiming it as a critical perspective in anti racism work How do whiteness studies both redeem and assert the white subject Working through Whiteness explores these questions through essays by Canadian American British and Australian scholars reflecting the broad array of academic inquiry into whiteness in the areas of law ethics education feminism politics psychology sociology criminology and social geography Rarely has knowledge of whiteness as the practice of social domination been drawn from this far and wide By embracing the leading edge in critical theory this book is a crucial addition to the growing literature on whiteness

Masculinities and Literary Studies Josep M. Armengol, Marta Bosch Vilarrubias, Àngels Carabí, Teresa Requena, 2017-02-03 As more and more work is being done in the name of the ever growing field of study of literary representations of masculinities it seems timely to not only review its development and main contributions to the larger field of masculinity studies but also to look at its latest advances and new directions These are precisely the two main aims of Masculinities and Literary Studies which seeks to explore the conjunction between these two fields while exploring some of the latest developments and new directions resulting from such intersections If much of the existing masculinity scholarship has traditionally been grounded in a specific discipline this volume also seeks to provide an innovative methodological approach to the subject of literary masculinities by proving the applicability of the latest interdisciplinary masculinity scholarship namely sociology social work psychology economics political science ecology etc to the literary analysis thus crossing the traditional boundary between the Social Sciences and the Humanities in new and profound ways Presenting the latest advances in masculinity scholarship this interdisciplinary book will appeal to gender and masculinity scholars from a wide variety of fields including sociology and social work psychology philosophy political science and cultural and literary studies

Post-Apartheid Same-Sex Sexualities Andy Carolin, 2020-12-30 This book examines how same sex sexualities are represented in several post apartheid South African cultural texts drawing on a rich local archive of same sex sexualities that includes recent fiction drama film photography and popular print culture While the book situates these texts within the specific context of post apartheid South Africa it also looks outwards towards transnational connectivity and cultural flows The author uses the idea of restlessness to refer to the uneven flow of cultural tropes political sentiment ideas ideologies and representational modes across geographical boundaries across time and space and between genres presenting sexual cultures as simultaneously rooted and transnational He focuses on how notions of race and gender in the shadow of colonialism and apartheid play out in the present and shape how sexualities are represented This interdisciplinary book offers a conceptual entry point to several areas of study including transnationalism literary and cultural studies critical race theory gender and sexuality studies and African studies and will be of interest to students and researchers across these fields Its inclusion of a range of textual genres extends its reach into visual culture film and media studies history and politics
