Disruptive Christian Ethics Traci C. West, 2006-01-16 This book brings to the fore the difficult realities of racism and the sexual violation of women Traci West argues for a liberative method of Christian social ethics in which the discussion begins not with generic philosophical concepts but in the concrete realities of the lives of the socially and economically marginalized Liberating the Politics of Jesus Darryl W. Stephens, Elizabeth Soto Albrecht, 2020-09-03 Bold faithful challenging this volume uncovers the social and political implications of the gospel message by looking at Anabaptist theology and practice from a female perspective The contributors approach the gospel from a wide range of disciplines and backgrounds liberating the radical political ethic of Jesus Christ from patriarchal distortions and demonstrating that gender justice and peace theology are inseparable Beautifully illustrated with pen drawings Liberating the Politics of Jesus recognizes the authority of women to interpret and reconstruct the peace church tradition on issues such as subordination suffering atonement the nature of church leadership and discipleship The contributors confront difficult topics head on such as the power structures in South Africa armed conflict in Colombia and the sexual violence of John Howard Yoder The result is a renewed Anabaptist peace theology with the potential to transform the work of theology and ministry in all Christian traditions Religious Anarchism Alexandre J. M. E. Christoyannopoulos, 2009-10-02 Both religion and anarchism have been increasingly politically active of late This edited volume presents twelve chapters of fresh scholarship on diverse facets of the area where they meet religious anarchism The book is structured along three themes early Christian anarchist pioneers including Pelagius Coppe Hungarian Nazarenes and Dutch Christian anarchists Christian anarchist reflections on specific topics such as Kierkegaardian indifference Romans 13 Dalit religious practice and resistance to race and nation religious anarchism in other traditions ranging from Wu Nengzi s Daoism and Rexroth s Zen Buddhism to various currents of Islam including an original Anarca Islamic clinic This unique book therefore furthers scholarship on anarchism on millenarian and revolutionary thinkers and movements and on religion and politics It is also of value to members of the wider public interested in radical politics and in the political implications of religion And of course it is relevant to those interested in any of the specific themes and thinkers focused on within individual chapters In short this book presents a range of innovative perspectives on a web of topics that while held together by the common thread of religious anarchism also speaks to numerous broader themes which have been increasingly prominent in the twenty first century Wounds of the Spirit Traci C. West, 1999-03 A collection of first person accounts documenting a historical legacy of violence against black women in the U S In Wounds of the Spirit Traci West employs first person accounts from slave narratives to contemporary interviews to Tina Turner s autobiography to document a historical legacy of violence against black women in the United States West a black feminist Christian ethicist situates spiritual matters within a discussion of the psycho social impact of intimate assault against African American women Distinctive for its treatment of the role of the church in response to violence against African American women the book identifies specific social mechanisms which contribute to the reproduction of intimate violence West insists that cultural beliefs as well as institutional practices must be altered if we are to combat the reproduction of violence and suggests methods of resistance which can be utilized by victim survivors those in the helping professions and the church Interrogating the dynamics of black women s experiences of emotional and spiritual trauma through the diverse disciplines of psychology sociology and theology this important work will be of interest and practical use to those in women s studies African American studies Christian ethics feminist and womanist theology women s health family counseling and pastoral care

Theology and the Crisis of Engagement Jeff Nowers,Néstor Medina,2013-10-11 What does theology have to do with sociology Do the social sciences in general provide helpful assistance to theologians Does theology have anything to contribute to social theory This compendium of essays attempts to address such questions In so doing it confronts assumptions about how academic disciplines are best articulated whether within their own airtight frames or in dialogue with one another The essays in the first half of the book accomplish this from historical and methodological perspectives while the remaining essays present case studies or constructive proposals for how theology might engage the social sciences in productive ways For those particularly interested in the ongoing development of theologies of liberation this book will be timely The essays reflecting a definite international flavor are written in honor of Lee Cormie a long standing advocate of what he calls the new voices in theology that have irrupted in the wake of Vatican II Cormie has spent over three decades teaching theologies of liberation at the Toronto School of Theology on the campus of the University of Toronto This book continues the many conversations that his teaching has provoked

Rainbow Theology Patrick S. Cheng,2013-04 To date no book has systematically examined the theological writings of LGBT people of color Nor has any book explored how such writings might actually transform contemporary theological reflections on race and sexuality This book remedies these gaps by constructing a rainbow theology around the theme of bridging or mediation Rainbow Theology is the first book to reflect upon the theological significance of the intersections of race and queer sexuality across multiple ethnic and cultural groups This is particularly important in light of the current polarizing debates over issues of race sexuality and religion within churches and communities of faith around the world

Asian and Asian American Women in Theology and Religion Kwok Pui-lan,2020-02-25 This book presents personal narratives and collective ethnography of the emergence and development of Asian and Asian American women s scholarship in theology and religious studies It demonstrates how the authors religious scholarship is based on an embodied epistemology influenced by their social locations Contributors reflect on their understanding of their identity and how this changed over time the contribution of Asian and Asian American women to the scholarship work that they do and their hopes for the future of their fields of study The volume is multireligious and intergenerational and is divided into four parts identities and intellectual journeys expanding knowledge integrating knowledge and practice and dialogue across generations

Searching for the Future in the Past Keun-joo Christine Pae, Kathleen T. Talvacchia, 2024-11-14 Inclusive and progressive theological and religious perspectives have an important and distinctive contribution to make to an analysis of the critical issues facing women identified persons in the 21st century This incisive collection of essays recovers the missing theological voices grounded in those religious communities and traditions which gender and sexuality studies often overlook Feminist theologies have from their beginnings aspired to be the communal production of women identified persons who critically reflect on their experiences in the contexts of culture social standpoint religious practices and beliefs and imagination of the Feminine Divine Pae and Talvacchia draw from this heritage to engage the critical issues of today to create new perspectives They create an intellectual and discursive space where feminist theologians in all of their diversity renew and reclaim the rich legacies of the feminist theological tradition through inter generational racially diverse and transnational conversation Convergences Maria del Guadalupe Davidson, Kathryn Sophia Belle, Donna-Dale L. Marcano, 2010-10-01 A range of themes race and gender sexuality otherness sisterhood and agency run throughout this collection and the chapters constitute a collective discourse at the intersection of Black feminist thought and continental philosophy converging on a similar set of questions and concerns These convergences are not random or forced but are in many ways natural and necessary the same issues of agency identity alienation and power inevitably are addressed by both camps Never before has a group of scholars worked together to examine the resources these two traditions can offer one another By bringing the relationship between these two critical fields of thought to the forefront the book will encourage scholars to engage in new dialogues about how each can inform the other If contemporary philosophy is troubled by the fact that it can be too limited too closed too white too male then this groundbreaking book confronts and challenges these problems Whiteness and Morality J. Harvey, 2007-06-14 This book considers how white U S Americans may participate in racial justice making and shows how white identities embody problematic moral realities arguing that reparations for people of African descent and sovereignty for Native peoples are critical for racial justice and transformation of what it means to be white in the United States Journal of the Society of Christian Ethics, 2009 Journal of Feminist Studies in Religion, 2006 Beyond Slavery Bernadette J. Brooten, Jacqueline L. Hazelton, 2010-10-15 In a United States that continues to be driven by racial and cultural divisions from the disproportionately high number of incarcerated African Americans to heartfelt disagreements over the true nature of marriage and the proper role of faith in public policy the Feminist Sexual Ethics Project from which this book originated has identified a crucial nexus underlying these fiercest of arguments The conjunction of religion slavery and sexuality Solidarity and Defiant Spirituality Traci C. West, 2019-01-22 How activists in Ghana South Africa and Brazil provide inspiration and strategies for combating the gender violence epidemic in the United States How can the U S learn from the perspectives of anti gender violence activists in South America and Africa as we seek to end intimate violence in this country The U S has consistently positioned itself as a moral exemplar seeking to export its philosophy and values to other societies

Yet in this book Traci C West argues that the U S has much to learn from other countries when it comes to addressing gender based violence West traveled to Ghana South Africa and Brazil to interview activists involved in the struggle against gender violence In each of these places as in the United States Christianity and anti black racism have been implicated in violence against women In Ghana and Brazil in particular their Christian colonial and trans Atlantic slave trade histories directly connect with the socioeconomic development of the Americas and historic incidents of rape of black slave women With a transnational focus on religion and racism West brings a new perspective to efforts to systemically combat gender violence Calling attention to forms of violence in the U S and international settings such as marital rape sex trafficking of women and girls domestic violence and the targeting of lesbians the book offers an expansive and nuanced view of how to form activist solidarity in tackling this violence It features bold and inspiring approaches by black women leaders working in each setting to uproot the myriad forms of violence against women and girls Ultimately West calls for us to learn from the lessons of Africana activists drawing on a defiant Africana spirituality as an invaluable resource in the quest to combat the seemingly chronic problem of gender based violence

Love that Does Justice Thomas Louis Schubeck,2007 Schubeck reviews the significance of love and justice within the Christian tradition and how they are understood and applied by the prophets and Jesus by Augustine Thomas Aquinas Reinhold Niebuhr and John Paul II

MultiCultural Review ,2006

Living in the Shadow of the Cross Paul Kivel,2013 Living in the Shadow of the Cross exposes how Christian hegemony punishes the poor destroys the environment and contributes to our seemingly endless war on terror This landmark work emphasizes the power of people to build strong movements for resistance

Christians in the Public Square Ellen Ott Marshall,2008 Christianity s chief contribution to America s civic life resides less in the ideas and positions Christians promote than in the way they go about promoting them Debate about our shared life as citizens has always been a vigorous affair in American history Yet recent years have seen a hardening of positions and a refusal to cross boundaries to cooperate or even understand those with whom we disagree Not only in the rough and tumble world of political campaigns but even in the historically more bipartisan world of governance the American public square has become a fundamentally divided place One reason for this situation says Ellen Marshall is an absolutizing of the ethical positions that underlie political commitments Both the religious right and the secular left have couched their ideas in terms of unbending moral principles certain in their possession of the truth But Christian ethics teaches us that while God s truth is indeed absolute our grasp of it never is Recognizing this truth Christians can more faithfully engage in the political sphere by Insisting on a rigorous and sustained exercise of the virtue of humility Charting a narrative understanding of Christian ethics in which a rich description of the context of moral decisions is necessary to understand how right and how wrong they are Taking account of the moral ambiguity that resides in almost all human actions Read the Introduction

Working Against the Grain Anthony Reddie,2008 Contains essays that outline a different vision for a liberative model of Christianity built upon the insights of

Black Theology This book argues that a re imagined Black theology can enable Christianity in particular and Black Christian faith in general to recapture the radical intent of this globalized religious framework     Engaging Biblical Authority
