Future Texts Vicki Callahan, Virginia Kuhn, 2015-10-25 Future Texts Subversive Performance and Feminist Bodies sketches several possibilities for future texts those that imagine new pathways through the forms used to express contemporary questions of race gender and identity Future Texts Subversive Performance and Feminist Bodies area of investigation is situated within popular culture not as a place of critique or celebration but rather as a contested site that crosses an array of media forms from music video to games to global journalism While there is an established tradition in feminist writing founded on experimental expression that disrupts patriarchal culture it has too often failed to consider issues of race and class This is evident in the dilemma faced by black feminists who alienated from dominant feminism's failure to consider their experience have been forced to choose whether they were black or women first To push back against such identity splintering Future Texts Subversive Performance and Feminist Bodies begins with the politics and aesthetics of Afrofuturism which sets the stage for the dialogue around contemporary feminism that runs through the collection With a paradigm of remix as linguistic play and reconfiguration the chapters confront the question of narrative codes and conventions These new formats are crucial to rewriting the relationship between hegemonic and resistant texts

The Dimensions of Difference Caroline Godart, 2015-12-11 The Dimensions of Difference departs from traditional takes on feminist film criticism and in particular from the psychoanalytical focus on the gaze to examine the question of sexual difference through three axes space time and bodies These are some of the most fundamental elements of cinema which deploys the bodies of actors through space and time for instance through camerawork and editing While this approach may not at first sight seem to be related to questions of gender and sexuality Caroline Godart demonstrates its relevance to feminist film studies by weaving together careful analyses of space time and bodies in women s cinema with close readings of the same concepts in the works of three philosophers Luce Irigaray Henri Bergson and Gilles Deleuze The book investigates how certain films generate a cinematic experience of sexual difference and frames this analysis within a careful philosophical inquiry into the notion of alterity itself These tools provide fruitful resources for feminist inquiry giving insights into sexual difference as it operates within film aesthetics and beyond cinema in the world at large The result is a compelling reflection on feminism film form and continental philosophy Looking for the Other E. Ann Kaplan,1997 On racial gaze Women of Vision ,2001 The Misogynistic Backlash to Women-Strong Films Dana Schowalter,Shannon Stevens,Daniel L. Horvath,2021 This book is an exploration of the political struggle for visibility engendered by the growing number of women centered popular films and a critical analysis of the intensifying misogynistic backlash that have accompanied such advances in the depiction of women on screen The book draws from a variety of theoretical and methodological tools to provide critical cultural analysis and alternative readings of women strong films and their important role in society The authors engage with popular culture and the popular press media studies and rhetorical criticism examining new modes of communication while providing historical context to help make sense of these oppositional readings The book includes case studies on Mad Max Fury Road Wonder Woman Atomic Blonde Star Wars and Ghostbusters to analyze critical responses men s rights activist boycotting campaigns online harassment and the political economy that precede and accompany the creation and presentation of these films This is an accessible and timely analysis of the rise of feminist friendly and women led films and the inevitable counterculture of misogyny It is suitable for students and researchers in Media and Communication Studies Gender and Media and Cultural Studies
