Disturbing the Peace Václav Havel, Karel Hvizdala, 1990 The president of Czechoslovakia tells of events in his life through a series of interviews      Disturbing the Peace Václav Havel, 1990-01      Disturbing the Peace Václav Havel, 1990-06-01      Disturbing the Peace [sound Recording] : a Conversation with Karel Hvizdala Havel, Václav, Wilson, Paul, 1992      The Art of Conversation in Cancer Care Richard P. McQuellon, Michael A. Cowan, 2021-09-23

Every day thousands of people are diagnosed with cancer or other life threatening illnesses Despite the best of intentions it is not always easy to communicate well under these circumstances or find deep empathy for something one has never experienced When is it best to speak and when to be silent How can someone provide real comfort and how can relationships with loved ones facing serious illness be enhanced in this most difficult time Written by a psychosocial oncologist and psychologist theologian The Art of Conversation in Cancer Care Lessons for Caregivers offers practical suggestions for health professionals families and friends about talking to one who has cancer This revised and updated second edition is organized around the themes of mortal time and healing conversation with cancer patients and their caregivers Mortal time is not so much a specific period but rather the psychological experience encountering mortality that often accompanies the diagnosis of cancer The first section of the book articulates the many ways people experience mortal time including a range of adaptive and less adaptive methods Next the basic elements of healing conversation are delineated with an emphasis on the hope that can spring from talking with a trusted companion Empathy listening carefully and responding thoughtfully and compassionately are discussed In the final section the authors offer guidance for caregivers This section includes material on the risks and costs of companionship as well as personal virtues that help a person navigate the demands of mortal time with their loved one The authors discuss resilience and the consequences of absorbing suffering including empathy shift where the cancer caregiver becomes less empathic with minor illnesses in others They conclude with the power of healing conversation in mortal time as a source of hope Throughout numerous patient vignettes illustrate the art of conversation in cancer medicine      Reconstruction of Peace in a World of War Catalina Elena Dobre, Gabriela Palavicini, Rafael García Pavón, 2025-07-25 This book explores the morality of creating peace in a violent world It includes spiritual and ethical dimensions to show that peace is not only the responsibility of politicians but that it is everyone's responsibility not to generate violence and hatred Peace is shown to be human work it is the responsibility of the whole community to maintain and create it Therefore peace is not only a political achievement but also has an ethical and spiritual significance and requires the moral development of the individual in order to secure the recognition and respect of others This book will be essential reading for all philosophers of politics morality and ethics and is also ideal for those who are researching aspects of spiritual philosophy      Time for Peace Luc Reyhler, 2015-10-01 For building sustainable peace and security the time is always now Violence in our world extends beyond armed conflicts it exists in our social and economic structures not to mention in our destruction of the environment How can we build more sustainable development and peace In this innovative ambitious book Dr Luc Reyhler argues that we must drastically change our temperament or the way we deal with time He surveys the vast temporal landscape and considers its many dimensions such as how time relates to emotions religion and conflict and how our time horizons affect the natural world Using examples such as Hurricane Katrina and regime change in Libya Reyhler shows how time is misused in conflicts be it the failure to anticipate a disaster or the manipulation of time to create a false sense of urgency Ultimately he proposes a more adaptive attitude to time so that we can be proactive rather than reactive in our efforts at sustainable development and conflict resolution Based on Reyhler s 40 year experience in the field Time for Peace is an original and important contribution to the development and peace research literature
