Dithoko Tsa Makolwane:

The Cambridge History of South African Literature David Attwell, Derek Attridge, 2012-01-12 South Africa's unique history has produced literatures in many languages in both oral and written forms reflecting the diversity in the cultural histories and experiences of its people. The Cambridge History offers a comprehensive multi-authored history of South African literature in all eleven official languages and more minor ones of the country produced by a team of over forty international experts including contributors from all of the major regions and language groups of South Africa. It will provide a complete portrait of South Africa's literary production organised as a chronological history from the oral traditions existing before colonial settlement to the post-apartheid revision of the past. In a field marked by controversy this volume is more fully representative than any existing account of South Africa's literary history. It will make a unique contribution to Commonwealth international and postcolonial studies and serve as a definitive reference work for decades to come.

Basotho Oral Poetry At the Beginning of the Twenty-first Century Tsiu, William Moruti, 2018-03-28 This book contains a major research into and deep investigation of Basotho language oral poetry in Lesotho at the beginning of the twenty-first century. The classical form, the dithoko, which was inspired by tribal wars or battles fought by the Basotho, is explored fully, but the absence of wars and urbanisation with the economic and social imperatives of modernism have inspired new forms of poetry. The new forms include dithoko i e praise poetry, the difela mine workers' chants, and the diboko, the latter which, as family odes, are still performed in rural areas. The research work involved the live performances of 33 diroki i e poets watched and recorded in their natural environments. The investigators were led by the late Professor Abiola Irele, then of Ohio State University.

Botjhabela Ba Lekoa Xolane Kgorane, Vincent Kheswa, 2021-04-23 English Almost every child dreams of being a superstar performing at the world's greatest stages and receiving the best awards. However, what happens when it's time to answer the calling? Very often it's never what it seems to be, but most importantly, success is never guaranteed. This book tells a story about an upcoming Hip Hop Artist by the name of LEQHWA as he prepares for the journey he's about to take in the Music Industry. It's a collection of his thoughts, vision, and lessons he takes forth on this journey. The book also demonstrates an ancient Basotho oral tradition of storytelling called Ditshomo. An illustration of how Leqhwa incorporates the Basotho Culture and Tradition into his Music.
